“Restrictions on cash withdrawals and capital transfers”

1. As from Monday, 20 July 2015, the bank holiday launched with the Legislative Act dated 28 June 2015 (G.G. issue A 65), as applicable and last extended, until 19 July 2015, by the Finance Minister’s Decision No 0000989ΕΞ2015/ XII2314/ 16.7.2015 of the General Secretariat of Economic Policy (G.G. issue B 1482), shall end and restrictions shall be imposed on cash withdrawals and on the movement of capital, as stipulated in this Act. The provisions hereof shall apply to credit institutions that operate in Greece in any form, including branches of foreign credit institutions within the scope of Law 4261/2014 (G.G. issue A 107), the Consignments and Loans Fund, payment institutions under Law 3862/2010 (G.G. issue A 113) and electronic money institutions under Law 4021/2011 (G.G. issue A 218) and branches and agents of payment institutions and electronic money institutions established in other countries and lawfully operating in Greece (hereinafter “institutions”).

2. As from 1st October 2018, cash withdrawals from any branch or ATM of credit institutions operating in Greece are permitted without limitation, including withdrawals using credit and prepaid cards issued by credit institutions operating in Greece, as well as any other cash payments from credit institutions, irrespective of currency, including, inter alia, checks and payments under letters of credit.

 The above amendment to paragraph 2 was introduced by means of paragraph 1 of the Ministerial Decision “Provisions on issues concerning restrictions on cash withdrawals and capital transfers” (G.G. issue B 4315/28.9.2018).*

3. As from 1st October 2018, cash withdrawals are allowed from institutions abroad, including withdrawals made using credit and prepaid cards issued by credit institutions operating in Greece, up to the amount of five thousand euro (€ 5,000) or equivalent in foreign currency per calendar month by customer ID, by credit institution.

 The above amendment to paragraph 3 was introduced by means of paragraph 2 of the Ministerial Decision “Provisions on issues concerning restrictions on cash withdrawals and capital transfers” (G.G. issue B 4315/28.9.2018).*

4. The transfer of funds or cash abroad in any manner whatsoever shall be prohibited, including orders to transfer funds to accounts held with credit institutions established and operating abroad, as well as the transfer of funds via credit, prepaid or debit cards for cross-border payments. The transfer of an amount of up to ten thousand euro (€10,000), or the equivalent in foreign currency, shall be specifically allowed per natural person per travel abroad, until the issuance of a Bank of Greece Governor’s Act, as set out in paragraph 17 of this Article. This restriction does not apply to permanent residents abroad.

The acceptance and execution by credit institutions of orders for capital transfers abroad shall be specifically allowed up to an amount of four thousand euro (€4,000) per Customer ID and per calendar two-month period, with effect from 1 July 2018, up to an aggregate monthly ceiling for all the above credit institutions to be determined and allocated among credit institutions by decision of the Committee for the Approval of Banking Transactions.

 The above amendment to paragraph 4 was introduced by means of paragraph 3 of the Ministerial Decision “Provisions on issues concerning restrictions on cash withdrawals and capital transfers” (G.G. issue B 4315/28.9.2018).*

5. By way of derogation from the provisions of paragraph 4 hereof, the use of credit and debit cards abroad shall be permitted for cashless purchases of goods or services up to a maximum amount specified per credit institution by the Committee for the Approval of Banking Transactions.

5a. By way of derogation from the provisions of paragraph 4 of this Article, the acceptance and execution of orders for capital transfers abroad by the payment institutions supervised by the Bank of Greece, including their agents, as well as by payment institutions of other EU Member States that legally provide money remittance services through their agents in Greece or through Hellenic Post S.A., shall be allowed up to an amount of four thousand euro (€4,000) per natural person/transferor per calendar two-month period, with effect from 1 July 2018, and up to an aggregate monthly ceiling in euro for all the above Payment Service providers, to be determined and allocated among Payment Service providers by decision of the Committee for the Approval of Banking Transactions. The ceiling per Payment Service provider, for which the exact method of calculation shall be specified by decision of the Committee for the Approval of Banking Transactions, shall be determined on the basis of the monthly net balance of incoming (to Greece) and outgoing (abroad) remittances processed by the Payment Service provider.

6. Opening an account and adding co-holders to existing accounts regardless of creating a new Customer ID shall be allowed.

8. Early loan repayments, in part or in full, to credit institutions are permitted.

9. Early redemption, in part or in full, of time deposits is permitted.

10. More specific issues:

a. In the event of garnishment of a monetary claim in the hands of a credit institution or the Bank of Greece or the Consignments and Loans Fund as a third party, the amount is either paid by means of a cheque or credited mandatorily into the bank account of the garnishing creditor, held with the same or another bank;

In the event of a collateral contract, if the loan agreement was entered into prior to the bank holiday of 28 June 2015, financial instruments may be transferred to be held in custody by a non-domestic depositary that will cover the liabilities originating from the contractual relationship, provided that the requisite supporting documents are submitted to the said depositary.

d. Capital transfers for the acquisition of financial instruments within the scope of Article 5 of Law 3606/2007 through regulated markets and multilateral trading facilities (MTFs) or professionals trading in such financial instruments, such as undertakings for the collective investment in transferable securities (UCITS), shall not be permitted. By decision of the Minister of Finance, upon recommendation by the Bank of Greece and the Hellenic Capital Market Commission, the restrictions under points (c) and (d) may be lifted and the requirements for the conduct of such transfers may be specified;

11. The following shall be exempt from the prohibitions and restrictions of the previous paragraphs:

a. transactions of the Hellenic Republic;

b. all transactions of the Bank of Greece, without exception;

c. specific transactions, the conduct of which is approved by decision of the Committee for the Approval of Banking Transactions;

d. incoming cross-border payment orders exclusively executed by crediting an account held with an institution operating in Greece, as specifically stipulated in point (g) of this paragraph.

(v) entry into and settlement of new interbank transactions (including but not limited to interbank lending, transactions in derivatives, FX spot, repo, buy/sellback and securities lending operations, etc.) or early termination or modification of the terms thereof, provided that such transactions do not lead to a material change in the total liquidity of the credit institution. Interbank transactions are understood to include transactions and payments carried out with domestic and foreign credit institutions, foreign clearing houses and subsidiaries of credit institutions operating in Greece;

(vi) any other interbank transaction deemed necessary for managing the credit institution's liquidity and financial and foreign exchange position (including but not limited to currency and derivative positions, etc.) arising from the execution of permitted transactions with natural or legal persons;

(viii) execution of payments relating to securities and asset-backed securities issued directly or indirectly by the credit institution or its subsidiaries, including but not limited to:

(aa) coupon payments, etc.;

(bb) payment of invoices of third parties (fees and costs of lawyers, managers, trustees, paying agents, etc.);

(cc) full or partial repayment of principal under contractual obligations or following the triggering of contractual clauses;

(ix) payment of consultancy fees to external advisors on matters related to the transactions under points (i) through (viii) hereinabove;

(x) debit/credit entries in nostro/vostro accounts of subsidiaries and third-party credit institutions, via orders-messages, irrespective of currency.

The transactions that fall within the scope of this paragraph, insofar as their purpose is to ensure the smooth and orderly functioning of the credit institution, may be executed without the need for special notification, provided that such transactions do not lead to a material change in the credit institution's liquidity. In the context of the above, the conduct of transactions concerning the customers of credit institutions is not allowed. In any event, any transactions within the scope of this paragraph shall be communicated to the Committee for the Approval of Banking Transactions.”

f. Such supporting documents shall be defined by decision of the Committee for the Approval of Banking Transactions.

Responsibility for the relevant documentation on transactions relating to capital inflows into Greece, outflows to countries outside Greece and cash withdrawals shall lie with the credit institution and must be complete. Each credit institution's management shall announce the manner and the timing for the implementation of the provisions under this point within a reasonable amount of time;

The scope of the first sentence of this indent shall also include the transfer of funds abroad by an institution, for the purchase of foreign financial instruments, within the meaning of Article 5 of Law 3606/2007, as currently in force, provided that the originating bank account, held by the transferor on his/her own behalf or by the investment service provider as a customer account at an institution, has been credited after the launch of the bank holiday of 28 June 2015 with funds from a foreign remittance, including cases of credit transfers as a result of a sale, buyback or redemption of foreign financial instruments or cash flows in respect of such financial instruments. In the above cases for which the transfer of capital outside of Greece is permitted, the relevant capital transfers are also permitted for the acquisition of units of UCITS under Law 4099/2012. Further to the above, it is permitted to withdraw cash, up to a percentage of 100% in total, from amounts which, after 1 December 2017, are transferred from abroad by means of a credit transfer to existing accounts held with a credit institution operating in Greece, following a procedure determined by the Committee for the Approval of Banking Transactions.

g. a remittance or credit transfer from a Greek public research institution under public or private law or a technological institution or research university institution within the meaning of Law 4310/2014 (G.G. issue A 258) to an account held with a credit institution established and operating abroad for amounts arising exclusively from remittances or credit transfers from abroad, which was executed after the entry into force hereof exclusively for serving the purpose of a research programme or other educational or research purpose. For the execution of these transactions, the credit institutions shall open a dedicated account, into which all transferrable amounts shall henceforth be transferred;

i. payments of pensions and any type of welfare benefits abroad by social security funds governed by Greek law, by crediting an account held with a credit institution established and operating abroad, in the following cases: if, prior to the start of the bank holiday, which was introduced by means of the Legislative Act dated 28 June 2015 (G.G. issue A 65), the beneficiary of the pension or welfare benefit received his/her pension or benefit in this manner or if the said beneficiary had proof of having submitted the relevant pension or welfare benefit application by the above date or if the beneficiary was granted a pension for the first time after 22/07/2016 provided that, in this latter case, the beneficiary proves that he/she has been residing abroad for the past two years at least;

j. unlimited cash withdrawals, as well as money remittances abroad, up to the amount of €5,000 a month, from one bank account per owner, by members of diplomatic missions and consular posts, as well as members of staff of the international and European organisations set out in paragraph 16 hereof, who shall be assimilated to members of diplomatic missions, against presentation of a special identity card issued thereto by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs;

k. Further to the above, it is permitted to transfer remittances in Greece by means of cash payments to the payees, provided that the originator has paid the total amount in cash;

l. The payment of such expenses is conducted, mandatorily, electronically through the credit institution to a bank account held abroad for their credit and not to a bank account of the beneficiary himself/ herself;

m. n. The transfer of an amount of up to five thousand euro (€5,000), or the equivalent in foreign currency, in total per calendar quarter for living expenses of students studying abroad or participating in student exchanges. The payment of such expenses shall mandatorily be carried out electronically through a credit institution and to an account held abroad in the name of the student concerned.
